- 4.3. In addition to the above, the HoO or legal practitioner who approves a legal aid instruction to which the tariff set out above applies may approve the maximum amount payable by Legal Aid SA in terms of the Judicare instruction.
- 4.4. Drafting documents
 - 4.4.1. Where the drafting of any pleadings, affidavits (of a non-formal nature and excluding annexures) or heads of argument are required in any matter, it is expected of the legal practitioner concerned to draft at a rate of 100 words per 15 minutes.

- 4.6.  - 4.6.1. that the legal practitioner, and consequently the correspondent, act on a legal aid instruction and are entitled to be remunerated by Legal Aid SA alone and on Legal Aid SA tariffs.
- 4.7. A legal practitioner who accepts a legal aid instruction is ordinarily expected to render the necessary legal services themselves. An attorney may, with the consent of the PE, elect to instruct an advocate in a matter in the High Court, subject to the condition that if Legal Aid SA has a High Court Unit in the magisterial district in which the seat of the court is located, the work shall, in the first instance, be offered to the said High Court Unit. In the event of the work being declined by the High Court Unit and thereafter being offered to any advocate in private practice, the attorney is required to make it clear to the advocate concerned:
 - 4.7.1. That the attorney and consequently the advocate act on a legal aid instruction and are entitled to be remunerated by Legal Aid SA alone and on Legal Aid SA tariffs;

- 4.11. No additional fees or disbursements are payable at levels 1 to 5 to any legal practitioner for any matter not provided for by this tariff and not agreed to in writing by the PE/CLE. Thus, for example, the legal practitioner who draws a plea is entitled to be remunerated for their time spent drawing the document. This is an all-inclusive fee and Legal Aid SA may not separately be invoiced for typing, copying, delivery, filing and similar non-professional services customarily rendered by the subordinate staff of the legal practitioner.
- 4.12. A legal practitioner shall retain their complete case file in respect of legal services rendered in any civil or non-litigious matter for at least 7 years after the finalisation of the mandate of the legal practitioner.

- 4.14. In any civil matter, prior to litis contestatio or in any non-litigious matter, a legal practitioner at levels 1 to 5 shall not, without the consent of the PE/CLE, be entitled to be remunerated for in excess of 10 hours' work over and above any necessary drawing and perusals. In any undefended civil matter or civil matter, which is or could reasonably have been settled prior to litis contestatio, this shall be reduced to 4 hours.

Legal Aid SA will pay legal practitioners in accordance with its tariffs strictly according to services rendered and to the extent that the applicable tariff makes provision for the service rendered.
 - 7.3 It shall be the responsibility of the legal practitioner upon submitting their account to ensure that Legal Aid SA is placed in possession of all documentation that will enable it to pay the legal practitioner's account. Provided this requirement is fully and properly complied with, Legal Aid SA will dispatch a cheque in payment of this account within 30 days of receipt thereof or, by electronic transfer, will instruct its bankers to effect payment, or, in the event of Legal Aid SA being unable or unwilling to effect payment, advise the legal practitioner in writing of the reason for non-payment.
